

POLITICS IN YORK

Mr. Goffigan Decides Not to Run for the Senate.

HOG MEAT IS NOW COSTLY

Cattle of All Kinds Now Show the Good Effects of Good Breeding—Warm Fight for Commonwealth's Attorneyship.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) YORKTOWN, Va., July 4.—The political campaign for legislative honors is waxing warm, and many ardent advocates of the several prospective candidates are hustling the cause of their particular choice. The race will evidently be an exciting one, the victor earning his spoils with much labor. Mr. Goffigan, York county candidate, has been so persistently entreated to accept the head of the ticket in this district, has finally decided not to become a candidate. It is learned, and will not accept the nomination. Mr. E. C. Madison, of Denbigh, was here during the week and announced himself a candidate for the office. Mr. Madison has represented Peninsula Virginia before in the legislative body, and is quite well known. Other candidates may enter the field, but Mr. Madison's friends are sure of success, so they claim.

HOG MEAT HIGH. Pork is at a high premium, and pigs of any kind, size or style command exorbitant prices. Prices have increased fifty per cent. over those of a few years ago, and it is nearly impossible to obtain even a pig. Pigs of fair breed readily bring $2.50 to $3.50 each at eight weeks old, which several years ago were sold on the market at $1. Home-cured hams bring from 25c to 35c per pound at the farm-house, while from 8 to 12c were sold here a few years back. The marked improvement in the breed of cattle on Virginia farms is quite evident. The influx of improved blood in the original diminutive cattle of the Old Dominion has worked miracles, and they have been increased in size and strength of their ancestors. Any old back-wed cow, the patient oxen in the field, all show evidences of Jersey, Holstein or other fancy blood. The sweet animals of ante-bellum days, which were produced enough to keep their calves alive, are a thing of the past, and in this "Old Virginia" shows rapid improvements of the age.

A CLOSE FIGHT. The fight over the Commonwealth attorneyship for the county of York is being vigorously waged, with the result decidedly in the balance. Judge Smith is being absolutely by legislative enactment, and is entirely out of the race, leaving the contest to be fought over by Messrs. B. H. Evans, of the upper end of the county, and Mr. C. H. Shield, of this place. As the primary draws near the contest grows warmer, as both gentlemen are equally popular, equally competent, and equally enthusiastic and aggressive. Barring the various municipal elections, or the fight in the free State of Warwick, the county of York probably presents the most lively political spectacle of the State. The buying season, just now at its height, has been rudely interrupted by the severe rains, veritable floods, and the week. Quite a quantity of forage was caught on the ground and rotted, not being fit for even cattle to nuzzle over in the printer. One lot of corn, which was lost a crop valued at $300 on one field, not saving a dollar's worth.

Mrs. W. J. Collett, of Washington, D. C., accompanied by Mrs. Margaret and Miss Fannie A. Quinn, of the same city, have been guests here for the past three weeks. Mr. William Lackey, of Lackey's Post-office, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Beulah Lackey, are visiting at Sanger's, N. Y., the guest of his son, Mr. William Lackey.

Mr. W. J. Phillips, of Tappahannock, has been much grieved by a severe accident to his little three-year-old daughter, who suffered the misfortune of a broken arm during the week. She has had three accidents of the kind in three successive years.

Miss Amy McEvoy, of Falmouth, Cal., and Miss Mildred McEvoy, of Ottawa, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. McEvoy at Temple Farm, where they expect to spend two months.

WHITE MAN DECAPITATED

Fire in Alexandria Damages the Southern Freight Depot.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ALEXANDRIA, Va., July 4.—The decapitated body of a white man who was subsequently found to be Richard L. Patton, of Washington, was discovered early this morning on the tracks of the Chesapeake and Potomac Rivers Railroad at St. Asaph, a mile north of this city. He had been struck by a freight train about 2 o'clock this morning. The remains were brought to this city by order of the coroner, and were taken to the morgue for examination. It was thought that the man had become weary from walking and had laid his head on the rail. He was wearing a blue shirt and dark trousers. The train was started from his home in Washington to go to Fredericksburg, Va., to spend the Fourth with his father.

A verdict of murder in the second degree with the punishment fixed at eighteen years in the penitentiary closed the trial of Thomas Blandheim (colored) shortly before midnight Friday in the Corporation Court. The Court granted a suspension of judgment until some day next week, when the motion for a new trial will be argued. The coolness and indifference of the prisoner throughout the case excited much comment. It is said that the strenuous efforts of Blandheim's attorneys, Messrs. Lewis H. Machen, Harry B. Caton and R. C. L. Moncreux, saved the prisoner's life.

LOWRY WAS BAILED

He Will Answer the Charge of Killing Graham on Tuesday.

W. H. Lowry, charged with killing C. E. Graham, was bailed for his appearance in the Police Court on Tuesday. Mr. H. F. Waldrop went his security in the sum of $500, and the Court granted a suspension of judgment until some day next week, when the motion for a new trial will be argued. The coolness and indifference of the prisoner throughout the case excited much comment. It is said that the strenuous efforts of Blandheim's attorneys, Messrs. Lewis H. Machen, Harry B. Caton and R. C. L. Moncreux, saved the prisoner's life.

Mr. Curle's Marriage.

The marriage of ex-Policeman John W. Curle, now an employee of the Locomotive Works, and Mrs. Lillie D. Meyer, took place at the residence of the bride, 1200 North Sixth Street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William E. Evans, pastor of Monumental Church. The marriage was witnessed by a few relatives and friends of the bride and groom. It was private, owing to recent death in the bride's family.

Judge Watkins Here.

Judge Asa D. Watkins, of Prince Edward, was in the city yesterday on private business.

Are Visiting Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitehead, Jr., of Lynchburg, are here, the guests of their sister, Mrs. Henry D. Perkins, No. 64 North Tenth Street. Miss Edna Aylett Cofer, Miss Helen Burnett and Miss Emma Morehead Whitehead have greatly enjoyed a stay of some weeks in London, England. From London they will go to Paris.

NANSEMOND POLITICS

Judge Kilby to Run for Commonwealth's Attorney.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SUFFOLK, Va., July 4.—A ripple of interest spread over political circles today when the announcement was made public that Hon. W. J. Kilby, county judge, would oppose Colonel E. E. Holland for State's Attorney. Judge Kilby has been on the bench for many years, and has made a capable official. Colonel Holland, too, has had undisputed possession of his job for a long time, and it was not known until last night that he would have a contest. Judge Kilby will vacate the bench the first of 1909, in time to take Prosecuting Attorney's place, should he be elected.

For the first time in many years the attendees at Isle of Wight County Court next Monday must take along their own goods if they would drink. Isle of Wight is one of the places for whose dryness the Mann bill is responsible.

Continuation of the July Stock Clearing Sale

Early July stock clearings act as a stimulant, both to store and customer. The weather's been so cool that many people have made little or no preparations for summer. Prices cut in half have been a big saving to them. It braces up the store for the fall campaign to get everything ship shape before inventory. That's the only reason for this sale.

Muslin Underwear and Corsets for Hot Weather.

This Muslin Underwear is the sheer, thin kind, made according to the Miller & Rhoads idea, which means perfection of cut, material and finish, no matter what the price.

Our Corset stock was never in better shape for furnishing summer garments. The two mentioned this morning are not only low in price, but unusually well made and serviceable.

Nainsook Gowns, chemise style, low neck, short sleeves, trimmed with dainty embroidery and wash ribbon, regular $1.50 Gowns, for $1.00. Chemise Gowns, of cambric, low neck, short sleeves, trimmed with embroidery and tuck. Nainsook, low neck and short sleeves, 50c. Parasol Weather is Here

People that waited until very hot weather before buying a Parasol are reaping the reward of their patience in the stock clearing sale.

Regular stock and special purchases all going at about half price in this sale, so that a Chiffon Parasol, usually selling for $7.50 is offered for $3.98, or a heavy Coaching Parasol, worth $4.00 or $4.25, now sells for $2.00.

Handsome Sun Shades for 98c, that were $2.00. Children's Parasols start at 15c. and run up to 98c.

Midsummer Clearance Prices on Colored Wash Goods.

Not a poor style in the lot. 15c. Chiffon, in figures and polka-dots, 10c. 25c. Colored Etamine Linen, pure fax, 15c. 50c. JEFFERSON PARK IS POPULAR

A Goodly Array of Guests and Many Pleasures to Amuse Them.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) JEFFERSON PARK HOTEL, July 4.—Dr. and Mrs. H. St. George Tucker were most charming additions to the party at Jefferson Park. During the past week Mrs. Tucker has lived in Virginia as comparatively short time, but she has made a most favorable impression on the people and is much admired for her courtesy and affability.

Among the dancers were the following: Misses Lillie and Virginia Schilling, Fannie Harrison, Bowles, Cowles, Watkins, Boykin, Woodward, Richardson, Hancock, Bullitt, Brown, Tignor, Giddens, Molly Michie, Mattie Lambert, Nell Christian, Eunice Michie, and Messrs. Thomas Johnston, Elliott, Sprales, Patton, Wooding, Humbert, Sinclair, Cronley, Harmon, Fife, Langhorne, Drake, Bell, Charles, Perkins, Wolfe, Patton, Salaman, Grant, Howard, Faye, Holston, Clay Michie and Dr. Michie. The hotel is almost full, there being few rooms unoccupied.

Many driving parties go to Monticello and the surrounding places of interest. Cards are a favorite amusement. Finally, the new game and the ever popular games of euchre and whist, are enjoyed very much.

The guests registered during the past week are: Captain T. C. Morton, Staunton, Va.; Lucy H. Upton, Atlanta, Ga.; Mary G. Packard, Atlanta, Ga.; Helen G. Allen, Atlanta, Ga.; Celeste V. Ribble, Asbury Park, N. J.; Margaret H. Puryear, Augusta, Ga.; Dudley R. Patton, Staunton, Va.; George C. Cole, Newport News, Va.; J. A. Bonnell, Hampton, Va.; S. W. Graefinger, Ithaca, N. Y.; J. W. Baird, Ithaca, N. Y.; Florence H. Brock, Chicago, Ill.; A. B. Johnson, Chicago, Ill.; May Pease, Chicago, Ill.; Florence R. Leary, Chicago, Ill.; Celeste V. Ribble, Asbury Park, N. J.; Winnie Richardson, Hampton, Va.; Lillie and Virginia Schilling, Fannie Harrison, Bowles, Cowles, Watkins, Boykin, Woodward, Richardson, Hancock, Bullitt, Brown, Tignor, Giddens, Molly Michie, Mattie Lambert, Nell Christian, Eunice Michie, and Messrs. Thomas Johnston, Elliott, Sprales, Patton, Wooding, Humbert, Sinclair, Cronley, Harmon, Fife, Langhorne, Drake, Bell, Charles, Perkins, Wolfe, Patton, Salaman, Grant, Howard, Faye, Holston, Clay Michie and Dr. Michie.

At present everything defers to the School of Methods. It would be an amusing sight to many scholars to see their dignified school teachers going through the many drills and exercises they themselves are used to in school work—standing in rows, recitations, for instance, and asking permission to speak. One of the most popular young ladies here is Miss Lois Leonard, of Hampton. She is a blonde, with a complexion of rare clearness and a way of brown hair and deep blue eyes. She entertains the crowd with delightful songs and dances to perfection. Miss Elsie Boykin possesses a beautiful voice, both in quality and culture, and is very obliging about using it for the benefit of the school.
